PROLOGUE

Critics, hark forward! noble game and new;

Students of E. C. J. C. come
now full in view;

And in this humble sketch,
we hope you'll find

Some emanations of a noble
mind;

Some little touches, which,
tho' void of art,

May find perhaps their way into your heart.

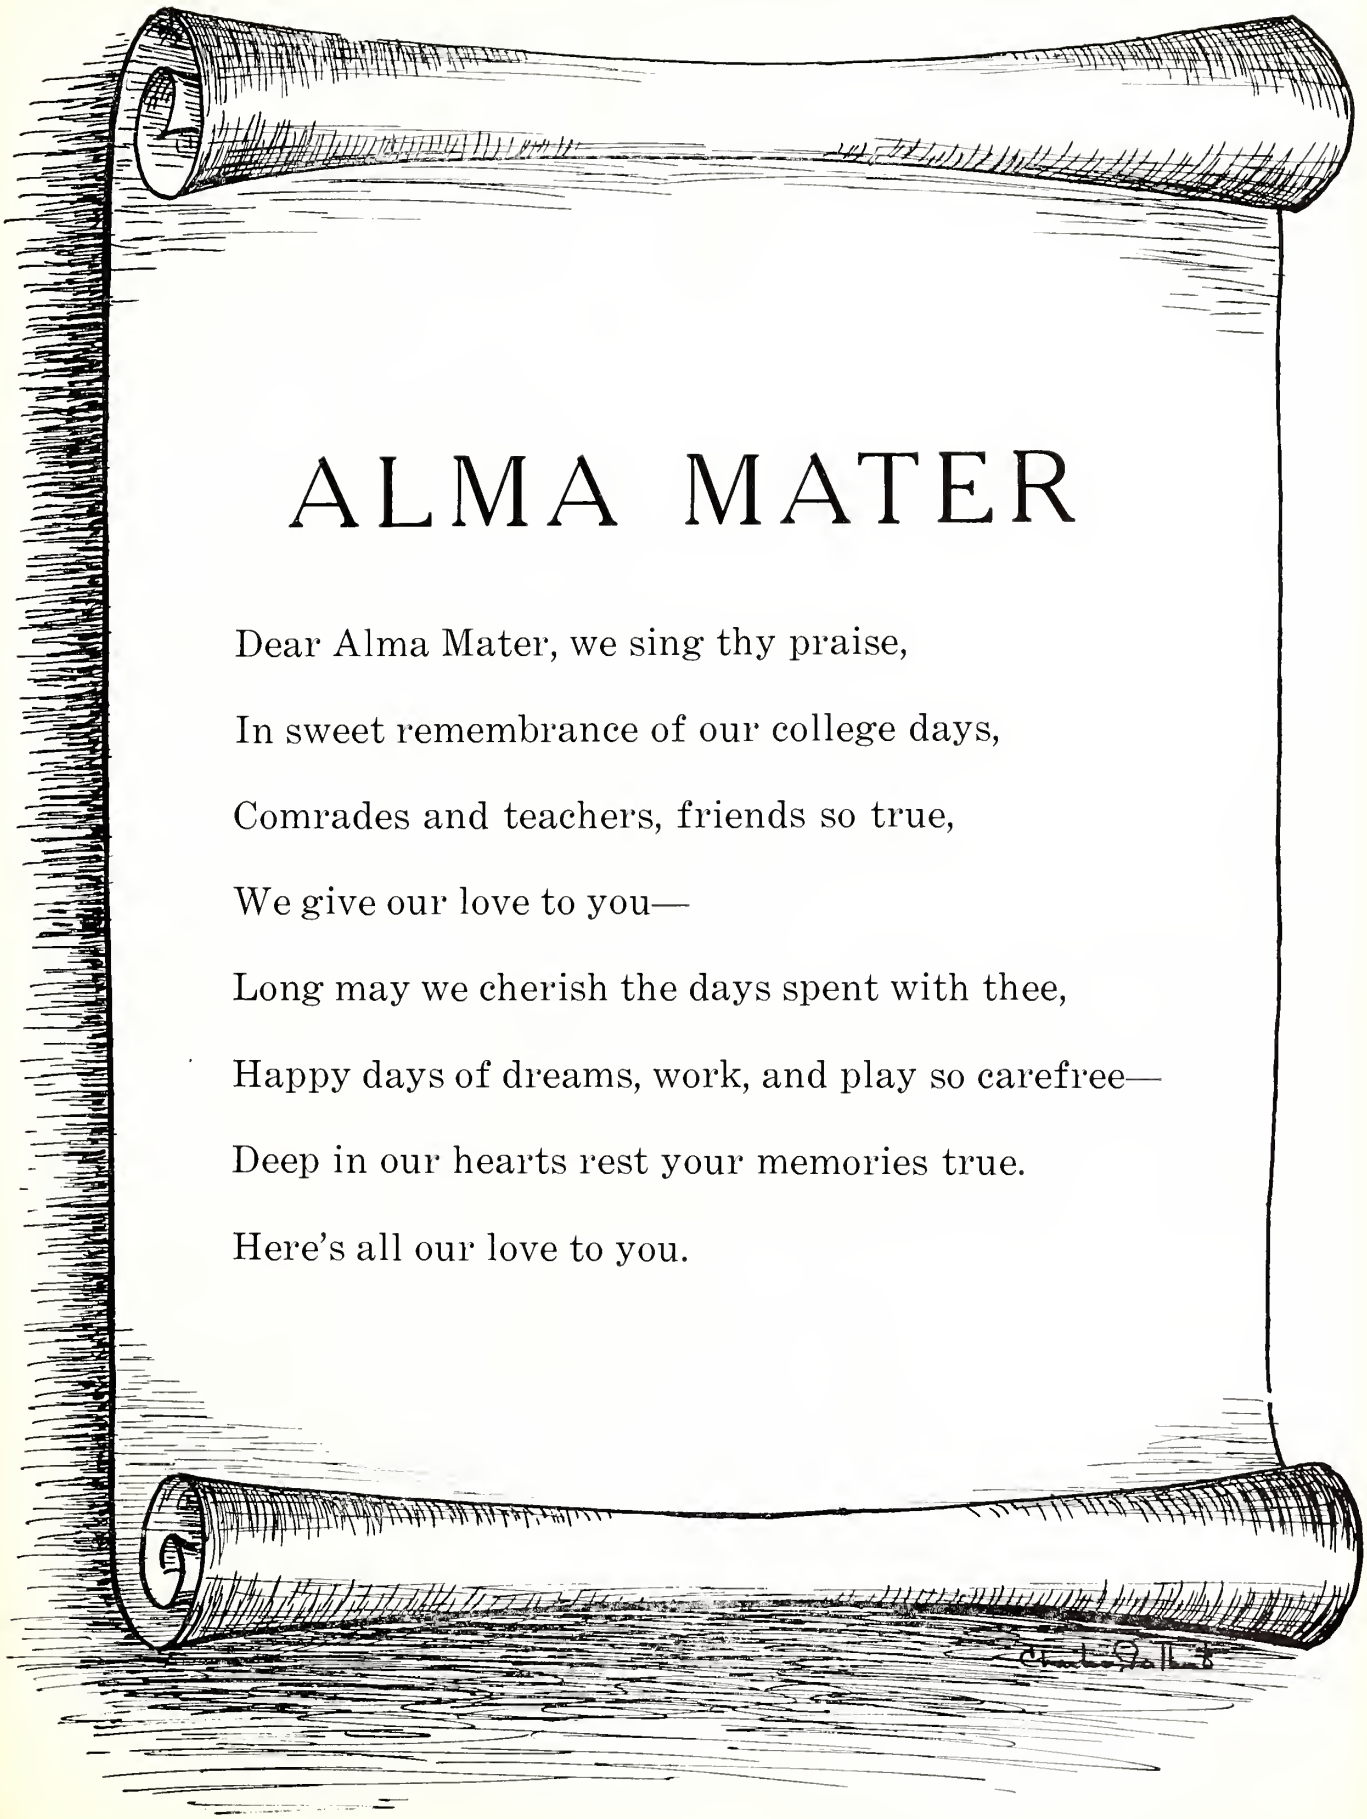
Dedication

To one who has loved E. C. J. C. through many years of loyalty and devotion—to one who has a sincere interest in those she graciously guides and directs—to one with all these endearing qualities, possessed with an unusual understanding of youth and its problems—to this ONE it is only fitting that we dedicate this, the fifth volume of the WO-HE-LO, to

MRS. J. L. JACKSON.



ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater, we sing thy praise,

In sweet remembrance of our college days,

Comrades and teachers, friends so true,

We give our love to you—

Long may we cherish the days spent with thee,

Happy days of dreams, work, and play so carefree—

Deep in our hearts rest your memories true.

Here's all our love to you.

The Sophomore Class

President's Message

To The Sophomore Class -- Greetings and Congratulations:

You came to East Central Junior College two years ago the largest freshman class in our history. Quality as well as quantity has been characteristic of your class. You have been members of championship teams in athletics, and you have made signal contribution in both inter- and intra-school activities. During your stay you have increasingly assumed direction over student activities. The contributions in religious organizations especially have been outstanding. We have enjoyed your stay in our midst, for you have been cheerful, aggressive, and courteous.

Several of your number have been called into military service during this year and many others of you will follow these soon. All of us are being called upon to render service to the nation in the several ways we can do it. The many strong talents you have been developing can be, and I am sure will be, used to the advantage of the community and yourselves as well, for it is in that way that the obligation can be discharged which you accepted when you took advantage of the benefits of higher training. We shall expect nothing less than capable and enthusiastic work from each of you.

You are soon to join the growing host of alumni scattered everywhere. You will be proud to be among them, as you, like them, find your place in society.

You go forth with our blessing. It is needless to say we shall be glad to welcome you back to see us from time to time, to learn with pleasure of your successes, and to learn with regret of your disappointments.

Most cordially yours,

L. O. Todd,

President
